

The Gallery at New Bethlehem Town Center invites you to its 1st Annual Arts & Crafts Show
Friday to Sunday, September 19-21, 2025

The Arts and Crafts Show, featuring artist produced arts and crafts, will be held during the New Bethlehem Peanut Butter Festival Friday through Sunday, September 19-21, 2025, inside (out of the usual weather) on the 1st floor of the renovated New Bethlehem Town Center at 419 Arch Street, New Bethlehem, PA. Space may also be available on the elevator accessible 2nd floor Gallery level. Space is limited, so please reserve early. This is the first major annual show at the Gallery, following 10 years of shows held by co-sponsor Redbank Renaissance on the first Saturday of December between 2007 and 2016 and a well-attended quilt show in 2019.

Many Chamber events are being planned for the day including a 5k, contests, Parade on Saturday and musical entertainment, vendors and food trucks all weekend. A car cruise is held on Sunday. A full schedule of events will be on the Peanut Butter Festival website. The Gallery is also holding an artist's painting contest and is co-sponsoring The Big Dog Show, a large public art sculpture exhibit, with Renaissance and the Redbank Valley Trails Association. These events should attract 3000-5000 people. Saturday is the busiest day with fireworks after dusk. The Artist painting contest concludes Sunday afternoon. Visitors of charities participating in the Big Dog Show will be encouraged to visit tables in the Town Center hallway to bring visitors inside. Restrooms and water are available on site.

Tables - $10 each/day (bring your own table or display/some tables 72"- 84" will be on site for $5 more-1st come.) Only $25 for all 3 days. Please register by Aug. 31st.

WHEN: Friday, Sept. 19, 10 AM to 6 PM Sat, Sept. 20, 9 AM to 8 PM Sunday, Sept 21, Noon to 5 PM
